

Printable Camp Doll Diaries Logos

I have had a lot of requests for the Camp Doll Diaries logos in a printable form so you can make camp signs and transfers yourself. Here you go!!

You may print these out to use in your projects, but remember, you may not resell them or use them on items you sell.

If you are making iron on transfers, check the instructions for the paper you have. Some want the image normal and some require the mirror image—which is why some of the images are backward.

Remember, Camp Doll Diaries is FREE, its online Monday-Friday beginning the first week of June at DollDiaries.com, and you can do as many of the activities as your interest and schedule permit.
