

We know you are just as excited as we are for Camp Doll Diaries 2015!

We have made a few fun printables you can use in your doll play over the next few weeks as you and your dolls start getting ready. You may print as many as you need.

Remember, Camp Doll Diaries is FREE, its online Monday-Friday beginning the first week of June at DollDiaries.com, and you can do as many of the activities as your interest and schedule permit.

Create, play and share your photos on your blog, Instagram (#campdolldiaries), Facebook, YouTube and Pinterest—we LOVE to see how you have been inspired to create and play.

Worksheets & Posters you can print and use for your doll play.
